

Maria, a hurricane victim, opens the app for the first time, logs in, creates a food-and-water relief request, submits it, and logs out. Starting the app creates each manager, which loads its data through the DataLoader singleton; submitting the request and logging out save data through the DataWriter singleton.