

Maria's home is flooded, so she logs in to find an open shelter within 25 miles. The facade gets her Victim object and its Location, and the ShelterManager keeps only shelters that are nearby (Shelter.isNear() compares latitude and longitude) and still have space. Maria picks a shelter and is checked in; the ShelterManager saves the shelter data through the DataWriter singleton, and logging out saves the user data.